

BRIEF LOCALS.

SATURDAY, JULY 8, 1899.

All the fresh fruit of the season on sale at the Second Hand Store.

An adjourned session of the District Court will be held Monday and Tuesday.

The Second Hand Store in its new location has added largely to its varied stock. *

Mrs. E. S. Greenlaw came in from Los Angeles Sunday and will remain several weeks.

Fire insurance. The Arizona Central Bank represents a number of old reliable companies, and will write your insurance at the lowest rate. *

Rev. G. H. Adams, of Phoenix, general agent for the Mutual Insurance Company, of Maine, is in town this week.

Clarence J. Spellmire, manager of the Milton Commissary, will leave tomorrow on a two weeks vacation which he will spend with his parents in Los Angeles, Cal.

A. B. Zeckendorf, who has been spending the past three weeks here, left this morning for Pasadena, Cal. He expects to spend the month of September here.

S. J. Lewis and sister, of Ash Forks, spent the week here. Mr. Lewis is the pioneer merchant of that place but having obtained a competency is now taking life easy.

Gay S. Barrett, who has been in the employ of the Arizona Lumber and Timber Company left Thursday to accept his former position in the Highland California Insane Asylum.

A fine selection of Jewelry at low price at the Second Hand Store. *

A. F. Potter, a prominent sheep raiser of Navajo County spent the Fourth here.

Camping outfits can be had at low prices at the Second Hand Store. *

County Treasurer Hoxworth leaves today on a two weeks visit with relatives in Los Angeles.

A large selection of novels, paper covered, at the Second Hand Store. *

L. H. Chalmers, a prominent Phoenix attorney, together with his family are in camp at Oak Creek.

For sale—Two gentle burros broke to ride, drive or pack. Apply to John Chisholm at stone quarry. *

The resignation of H. C. Hibben as Justice of the Peace of Flagstaff precinct was accepted by the board of Supervisors and on petition J. C. Milligan was appointed to fill the unexpired term.

Mrs. A. J. Padghan entertained this afternoon at her home in Tustin in honor of Mrs. Edwards and her daughter of Flagstaff, Ariz. Mrs. Padghan will entertain again Saturday afternoon in honor of the same guests.—Santa Ana Blade.

Wm. Munds and wife, of Jerome, enjoyed the Fourth of July festivities here. They were formerly residents of Coconino County, and still have a liking for the mountains and tall pines. Mr. Munds is now mayor of Jerome, and to his wise counsel and experience that town owes much of its progress.

Walter Bennett and family came up from Phoenix Monday, and left the following day for Oak Creek where they will enjoy fishing and camping for several weeks. Mr. Bennett is one of the leading attorneys of the Capital City.